FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 2, 1864.

EASTERN NEWS.—We compile from the California papers the following items of late date:

Sherman's movements are creating a great consternation within the bounds of rebeldom, and when last heard from he was unopposed, and within 25 miles of Macon. He had destroyed the railroad and bridges along the route, and was pushing on. No doubt Macon had already fallen.

The seat of James Brooks in Congress will be contested by Wm. E. Dodge.

There was a movement in the army before Richmond and Petersburg, but the result is not given.

Several blockade runners had succeeded in entering Charleston harbor.

The Richmond papers claim that Georgia and Alabama are disaffected, and confirm the report of resolutions passed in the Georgia Legislature proposing a convention of all the States to agree on terms for peace.

Hood, with 35,000 men, is still in the vicinity of Florence, Ala., and Dick Taylor is said to have joined him with 10,000 more. There are indications that he will soon commence offensive operations.

The situation at Matamoras is given in the reports, and general items of news from that quarter.

Mosby says he has executed seven Union prisoners in retaliation for the death of that number of his own men by order of Sheridan.

It is reported by rebel papers that Generals Gus. W. Smith and Howell Cobb are opposing Sheridan's march.

The Bank of England has reduced rates of interest to 8 per cent.

The steamer Sea King cleared from London for Bombay, but is supposed to have taken Semmes and his men on board off Madeira.

The operator here informs us that the line will be working through to San Francisco this morning. It is probable the eastern line has been down for some time, as at Red Bluffs no later news than the 23d had been received up to last evening.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY RAILROAD.—The adjourned meeting of the Incorporators of the Willamette Valley Railroad Co. took place at the office of the O. S. N. Co., in this city, on Wednesday evening, the 30th ult.

Little was done, as it was deemed best to have a full meeting of the Incorporators, two of whom were absent from the city. After much informal but encouraging discussion of measures best calculated to promote the enterprise, the meeting adjourned, to meet at the same place, at 7 P. M. on Tuesday, December 13th.

At this meeting additional means were subscribed to the fund for contingent preliminary expenses. A map of the valley was exhibited, showing that the routes on the east and west sides of the river would be of about equal length to Salem, and other points south of that place. Gentlemen present, members of the Incorporation, made estimates that proved satisfactorily that a road, built with proper economy, throughout the valley's length, would pay at least ten per cent. per annum for the first year after its completion, above all expenses.

Letters were read from gentlemen of the valley, giving assurance of co-operation with their fellow citizens in Portland, who are now making the preliminary arrangements to open books of subscription.

No better guarantee could be given to the citizens of the Willamette valley that this road is feasible, and necessary to all the best interests of the valley and of Oregon, than that the Incorporators—H. W. Corbett, W. S. Ladd, J. C. Ainsworth, Governor Gibbs, C. M. Carter, of Portland, and I. R. Moores and E. N. Cook, of Salem—feel a deep interest in this road, and that, soon after its completion, they think it would be remunerative to its stockholders. It is for the people of the valley to decide whether they will give the necessary aid to the enterprise, by subscriptions in lands and money.

LOBBYING FOR A MINT.—We have been told, but have scarcely been able to believe it possible, that Newell, of the Dalles, has been furnished with means to go on to Washington, and represent the interests of the Dalles there, at the coming session of Congress. Mr. Newell's loyalty will recommend him to an almost unanimous Congress—perhaps? and we suggest to his friends, that the little speech of his, responsive to the calls of his secesh friends on the evening of the election jubilee, wherein he was considerate enough to tell them that he "sympathized" with them, but couldn't "vote with them,"—would, at least, give Uncle Abraham the text for another "little story." But really, we have a deal of good will towards the people of the Dalles; and enterprising, and thoroughly determined as they are to prosper, and deserving success as they do, on account of their energy and enterprise generally, we would have been perfectly willing to see their interests represented at the capital by something more worthy of them and more conducive to their welfare, than the individual they have chosen. However, if they can stand it, we certainly can; and our hearts feel lighter for the Mint question when we are aware that his going is an absolute fact.

OWYHEE NEWS.—A friend writing us from Owyhee under date of November 12th, says the mills are doing an excellent business. Twelve inches of snow had fallen, but was nearly all gone. The rock crushed from all the ledges thus far, had turned out well. Eight and a half tons of "War Eagle" rock crushed at "Morning Star" mill, had yielded $1,800, averaging $225 per tons. This proves that the "War Eagle," as predicted by experienced quartz miners, is one of the most valuable ledges in that region; besides which, it is one of the most clearly defined, and among the widest ledges there.

BARBER shops and cigar stores are all closed in Washington each Sunday by a military order; consequence, unshaven chins, little smoking and a great deal of [illegible] swearing. The streetcars [illegible] the Sabbath without any hindrance.

NEVADA GAZETTE.—We see that an old Oregonian, William [illegible], formerly editor of the Oregon Statesman, is the present editor of the paper above named.

Why will the Dalles be an economical place for the employees of the Mint to live?

Ans. On account of the sand which is (Sandwiches) there.

EASTERN NEWS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The Herald's special [illegible] Sherman [illegible] Eyre, and [illegible] the great [illegible].

The Times' special dispatch [illegible] the story of an interview between the French Minister and Seward [illegible].

The Tribune's special [illegible] State [illegible] was again [illegible]. He has no idea of leaving the cabinet.

Gen. Rawlings, Gen. Grant's Chief of Staff, [illegible] that there was a [illegible] Richmond [illegible].

[illegible] Nov. 22.—A [illegible] left Marietta, Ga., November 12 [illegible] after the last train had left for Chattanooga. At two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, by a simultaneous movement, the rails were torn up from Atlanta to Ackworth. At the Etowah we met General Sherman bringing up the rear of the column—Jeff. C. Davis' Fourteenth Corps. As we passed Ackworth, Cartersville, and Allatoona, we saw the burning on Sunday, the 13th, of the bridges over the Etowah. The railroad bridges were to be destroyed. Atlanta smouldered in ruins on the 14th, and on the 15th the expedition cut loose from their communications—destination unknown. The best informed say Sherman will go via Macon and Augusta to the Atlantic coast. This looks feasible either at Macon. Hood's communication with Richmond can be cut, and Anderson's [illegible] is located only a few miles below.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The Alexandria (Va.) Journal says the troops, as previously stationed at Fortress Monroe moved up the James on Friday, 18th, to Dutch Gap, indicating an important move.

The Commercial's special dispatch says: There was great consternation at Richmond, on Saturday, the 19th, on account of Sherman's move. It is believed that he is sweeping onward in spite of all opposition. It is not impossible that Macon has already fallen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22d.—The Post's special dispatch says Wm. E. Dodge, of New York has notified James Brooks of his intention to contest the seat of the Eighth Congressional District in the House of Representatives. A large number of seats in the next Congress will be contested.

The Commercial's City Point, Va., letter, dated 19th, says: The movement of the army began yesterday. While with the Ninth Corps, on the extreme left, I learned that orders had been issued to prepare eight days' rations and one hundred rounds of ammunition, and be ready to march at any moment. The artillery of that corps set out on the march by sunset (18th) and encamped eight miles to the rear of City Point, on the line of the railroad. The infantry followed shortly after and reached Hancock Station, about ten miles hence. Similar orders were issued to the Second Division of the Fifth Corps. It began to rain about eight o'clock last night and has continued ever since. The line of march yesterday was towards the Appomattox, which it would probably strike about two or three miles below Petersburg, if the design was to cross to Butler's department. By leaving the forts well garrisoned the line is now so strong that Grant can hurl his main body against any part of the rebel lines he may select, while it is impossible to flank him or cut his communications with any force short of the whole rebel army.

The Commercial says editorially: It is reported that all the mounted cavalry in the Department of the Gulf commenced concentrating under Gen. A. L. Lee several days since for the purpose, it is believed, of co-operating with Sherman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Sergeant Griffen, of the One Hundred and Thirty Second New York, and another gentleman who escaped from Charleston, report the lower part of the city untenable in consequence of our shells. A few fires were occasioned by the bombardment, and a few casualties had taken place—probably twelve deaths in all. Five thousand troops are in and around Charleston. Eight heavy guns are mounted on the channel facing Fort Sumter. Citizens are much troubled in consequence of the want of habitations. Blockade running continues with the greatest impunity. Three nights before they left, four blockade runners cleared at the same time on outward trips.

The Richmond Whig of November 18th has a rumor that the Dutch Gap Canal is completed.

The Dispatch says: Indications on the north side yesterday were that the enemy are preparing for an attack, which it is generally agreed will soon be made. Yankee troops, reported to be Sheridan's, are being massed on the line between Fort Harrison and the James river. If Butler's canal is completed, this will be one of the points assailed.

Rebel papers say that Gov. Watts of Alabama had an official conflict with the rebel conscripting officers. The enforcement of Selma, being taken for service in the army, applied for redress to the Governor, who issued an order that as they were State officers, they were exempt from draft. They were, therefore, released.

The Richmond Examiner is severe on what it styles the defection of Governor Brown of Georgia, and the Legislatures of that State and Alabama. It says: "A Convention of all the States, North and South, for the purpose of agreeing upon terms of peace, will meet the same day with a parliament of mankind and a federation of the world, and not an hour sooner."

The Times' special dispatch says: The latest intelligence from Sherman reports him within twenty-five miles of Macon. His march is unopposed, and we may therefore look for the announcement of the capture of that place at any hour.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23d.—There is nothing later from the Shenandoah Valley to notice. The rebels have apparently abandoned the idea, at least for the present, of further contest with Sheridan for its possession.

The World's special dispatch says: Officers who arrived to-day from the front at Petersburg state that the enemy show no signs of evacuating Petersburg. On the contrary, they have resumed picket firing in the most animated manner. No demonstrations beyond this have been made by them since they captured a small portion of our picket line in front of Butler, which they still hold.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The latest intelligence represents Hood, with two corps, numbering thirty-five thousand men, still in the vicinity of Florence, Ala. There are reports that Dick Taylor had joined him with an additional force of ten thousand men. His latest movements do not indicate any intention of soon attempting offensive operations; Beauregard with Stewart's corps, was still at Corinth (Miss.) when last heard from. General Thomas, commanding the Union army designed to check Hood's advance, is rapidly concentrating his forces, as though disposed to make an attack on the rebels in some direction.

The rebel General Breckinridge is suspected, of a design to march from East Tennessee for an invasionary expedition into Kentucky, and General Burbridge is making a rapid disposition of his forces to prevent the movement.

Advices from Havana are to November 19th.

The steamer Scott, from New Orleans to New York, with an Indiana regiment on board, was badly aground at Key West harbor. It was supposed she would go to pieces.

The steamer Wild Rover, with Lieut. Braine and the rest of the Roanoke pirates on board, is reported to have arrived at Nassau from Bermuda. She attempted to get into Wilmington, but failed.

Blockade running is brisk, a large number of vessels having run into Charleston.

The Nassau Guardian announces the arrival of the Laurel after touching at Madeira and Teneriffe, at one of which places she doubtless left Semmes and crew.

Havana papers print a letter, purporting to be from Gen. Mejia, containing a summary of the situation at Matamoras on Nov. 10th. He speaks of the submission of Cortinas, the capture on that of the city, with 2[illegible] cannon, an immense amount of war material and [illegible] men, and the solemn recognition of the new empire. The rebel [illegible] camps are in sight of Matamoras.

The steamer Mexico was [illegible] Matamoras, [illegible] to have authority from the American [illegible] the papers and [illegible] the vessel from [illegible] Mexican. He forced the crew to navigate the vessel to Havana [illegible]. The vessel will [illegible] service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Information from City Point, dated yesterday, 22d, states that but a short time would elapse before the Dutch Gap canal would be [illegible].

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The Richmond Sentinel of Saturday, 19th, says [illegible] massing troops on the right of the [illegible] in the vicinity of Battery Harrison, and that Sheridan has sent a considerable force to the James. A strong demonstration was made on Wednesday 17th, on Butler's front by his troops, but it was repelled back without accomplishing anything.

The Petersburg Express reports the arrival of heavy reinforcements to Grant within the past few [illegible]. In the affair on Thursday night, the [illegible]

[illegible] Sheridan, and [illegible] the execution of seven Union prisoners, [illegible] announcing his intention to [illegible], if any more of the captured men are executed.

The Herald announces that General Gus. W. Smith is [illegible] Howell Cobb in opposing Sherman's march.

European News.

The [illegible] from Liverpool November 10th has arrived.

The Bank of England has reduced the rate to [illegible] per cent.

The Spanish [illegible] House adopted the treaty of [illegible] by a large majority.

The Alabama correspondence relative to the seizure of the pirate Florida, published in the London [illegible], denounces the seizure and hopes the American Government will repudiate it.

At the banquet of the new Lord Mayor of London, Lord Palmerston made a speech in which he, in referring to the bloody war in the United States, said he trusted the contending parties would soon find whether [illegible] be reconciled than [illegible] and that these disputes which have been sewed [illegible] with blood would be settled by amicable arrangements between themselves.

Great floods have occurred in Tuscany. Enormous damage had been suffered at Florence.

The Times says: Advices from New York in regard to the manner in which the Washington Government received the news of the capture of the Florida are awaited with the greatest interest by the mercantile world. One reason for the importance attributed to these advices consists in the evidence that if such affairs be permitted or justified by Lincoln's Government it will henceforth entirely extinguish any power on the part of the United States to assail by privateers the commerce of any nation with which they may be at war, since the precedent will establish a claim to the right to pursue and destroy every such vessel, whatever may be the port in which she may seek shelter or supplies.

The debate on the Convention and the removal of the capital of Italy from Rome to Florence, was still progressing in the Chamber of Deputies.

The London Shipping Gazette believes that the steamer to which Captain Semmes and his men were transferred by the Laurel, off Madeira, was the Sea King, which recently cleared from London to Bombay.

South America.

Late advices from South America say: The native rebels of Uruguay are operating with great activity against the Government troops. Their action is affording very great aid to the encroachments of Brazil upon the Republic.

Paraguay sent a short protest to the Envoy of Brazil against the policy of the Emperor, in which the President declared his intention of taking up arms, if necessary, in support of the cause of the sister republic of Uruguay. He condemned the non-intervention course of Buenos Ayres. It was thought Paraguay would bring forward a power which would prove very formidable to Brazil. The Uruguayan troops were in hasty march for Paysandu, the occupation of which place, it was thought, would decide the war against the rebels. Some British, Brazilian and French war vessels lay off Bay Sandu.

By a decree of the Brazilian Government, dated September 14th, all native Africans in the employ, whether in the service of the State or of private individuals, are emancipated.

[illegible] BOATING.—Last week during the heavy storm, two brothers by the name of Hilton, set out from Tansy Creek, about six miles distant from Astoria, to sail or row to Astoria, in a miserable little scow-skiff boat, at a time when nothing but a whale boat would be safe for experienced watermen in the bays about the mouth of the Columbia. They had proceeded only two miles or so when they "capsized." A strong southerly wind and ebb tide set them over toward Baker's Bay and out to sea, holding on to the wrecked boat. Some children saw them and ran down to Fort Stevens and informed Capt. Stevenson, of the sloop Belle, of the circumstance. He boldly put out with his fine little sloop and rescued the men in the immediate vicinity of the breakers. In ten minutes more they would have drifted into the surf. This is not the first instance when lives have been lost, or nearly so, by such reckless, foolish conduct of bush-whackers attempting to navigate the river about here at times when none but experienced men with good boats should attempt to do it.—Astoria Marine Gazette, Nov. 29.

TERRIFIC TORNADO AT CANYON CITY.—From the gentlemanly messenger of Wells, Fargo & Co., Mr. Ellis, who arrived in this city night before last, direct from Canyon City, we learn that that part of the country was visited by a terrific gale of wind, accompanied by rain and snow, on the 23d ult. Miles of fluming were blown down, letting the water out of ditches, which swept down into the mining claims, filling up cuts and drain-races, carrying off sluice boxes, tools, &c. Sluice boxes, laying high and dry, out of reach of the water, on the side hills, were taken up by the wind and carried to a great distance. The Catholic church, which stood upon blocks of wood, was taken up bodily and carried some feet. The fences, for a distance of some twelve miles on this side of Canyon City, were blown down. Wagons moving along the highway were blown over, and in one or two instances, considerably damaged. During the continuance of the gale, the air was filled with the debris that had been caught up by the wind and sent hurling through the air.—Mountaineer.

WHEN Gen. Butler was apprised that the rebels had sent out colored prisoners to work on their intrenchments, he immediately notified the Confederate agent that the outrage must be stopped, or he should promptly retaliate. Gen. Ewell agreed to reply to the communication at 12 o'clock next day, but noon having arrived and no answer being received, Gen. Butler ordered that an equal number of rebel prisoners should be set to work on the Dutch Gap—that they should be served with the same rations as our men, namely, one pound of flour and one-third of a pound of bacon daily, and that they should labor ten hours per day. Nothing can be more to the point, than those prompt measures on the part of Gen. Butler.

HENRY Meiggs' contract with the Chilean Government bound him to build the Santiago Railroad in three years, and stipulated that should he complete it in less time, he should be paid a bonus of ten thousand dollars a month for every month saved over. The contractor turned the road over to the Government in just two years, and pocketed $120,000 for his celerity. Meiggs is only more a wealthy man. He is reported to have settled not long since, a San Francisco debt of $100,000 for $20,000.

"It is wonderful how soon the Prince Imperial of the [illegible] Nation" has attained imperial tact, says a late Parisian sheet. "He was taken to hear a recitation by school boys, the other day, and doubtless heartily bored. To one of them, however, who recited a fable of La Fontaine remarkably well, he said: 'Since you recite La Fontaine so well, I will send you a copy of his works;' and accordingly a splendid edition was forwarded to the fortunate little boy."

THE first Legislature of the State of Nevada will present the remarkable spectacle of both Houses unanimous in political sentiment, with an Executive and Judiciary of like sentiments to enforce the Legislative enactments. The constitution provides for biennial sessions. The first session will commence at Carson City on the second Monday of December.

IN Italy a brigand trial lately took place.—There were seventy-four accused. The opening for the prosecution took four days, the summing up thirty-six days, and the charge of the President five days. Four thousand eight hundred and thirty-two questions were submitted to the jury, who were out ninety-three hours.

THE Washington correspondent of the Chicago Journal, while writing a trifle and discriminating comparison between Generals Hooker and Sheridan, records the singular fact that all great generals, with only exceptions enough to prove the rule, have been little men, medium or under medium size.

ON Tuesday the wires were stretched from [illegible] Bay, seven miles on the New Westminster line. The work will be pushed on at the rate of two or three miles a day, and with good luck, will reach New Westminster in about six weeks.—Seattle Gazette.

REAR ADMIRAL Pearson assumed the command of the United States Pacific squadron on the 29th ult.

Richmond Enquirer [illegible] The dissatisfaction toward Jeff. Davis and the measures which [illegible] Richmond Enquirer [illegible] their language as the following:

The President can only be reached by impeachment, the Senate [illegible] revolution? Are we prepared for [illegible] revolution? [illegible] or is the country willing to displace the President? If so, who are they willing to put in his place? [illegible] the absurdity of supposing that [illegible] our readers. We write with the knowledge that our army has been driven back from Chattanooga, and that a triumphant enemy pretends to dictate terms in the heart of Georgia; while the knowledge that Sherman has driven our forces up the valley, and are ravaging the fields upon which we [illegible] subsistence; while the sound of a heavy [illegible] in our ears, and the news that the enemy has carried an outpost of the defences of Richmond; and we assure our readers of the South that the partisan controversy to which we have alluded gives us more concern than all these put together.

MARRIED:

In [illegible], December 1st, 1864, at the residence of the [illegible], by Rev. D. Rutledge, Mr. J. F. Wolf, of Portland, Oregon, to Miss M. E. Joyce, of Portland, Oregon.

Compliments received.

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN
DOUBLE TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN TURBINE HAS many advantages over all other Wheels, both Turbine and Overshot. It has competed successfully with every variety of Wheel and has always proved itself victorious. This Wheel has been in use nearly Three Years in the State and HAS NEVER MADE A FAILURE. It is CHEAPER than an Overshot, MORE DURABLE, and will YIELD A HIGHER PER CENT. OF POWER from the same quantity of water. We have introduced [illegible] on this coast. They are now all in operation [illegible] well known in [illegible] experienced Millwright, well known in this State.

WESTPORT, CLATSOP CO., OREGON,
Nov. 19th, 1864.

Messrs. Leffel & Myers—Dear Sirs:—We have plenty of water [illegible] and your DOUBLE TURBINE is in successful operation. We are satisfied that your Wheel is fully equal if not superior to the Overshot. With the same water that the Overshot uses, we can do more work with the Turbine than with the Overshot. I have tried many Wheels which were claimed to be superior, but yours is the first I have found. Hence we do not hesitate to recommend the American Double Turbine as the most efficient economizer of water in our knowledge. JOHN WEST & CO.

We desire all who want Wheels to visit the following named places and have ocular demonstration of the above facts:

John West & Co., West Port, Clatsop County, Oregon;
Lewis Love, Vancouver, W. T.;

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The regular weekly meeting of the Common Council was held at the Council Chamber at seven o'clock last evening.

Mayor Failing was not present and Councilman Frank occupied the Chair.

The following members were present—Councilmen Bennett, Cook, Bacon, Creighton, Holman, Starr and Robertson.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Clerk and approved by the Council.

Petition for a stove in the Engine House of Company No. 1, was read and referred to the committee on fire and water.

The committee on fire and water reported favorably on a number of bills, and on motion of Mr. Starr that portion relating to paying the same was laid upon the table.

The same committee reported on needed repairs to the Engine House of Co. No. 2, recommending a general overhauling in the spring, which report was adopted.

The same committee reported by resolution that the sum of $600 be appropriated to purchase a new truck for Vigilance Hook and Ladder company, and report was referred back, with instruction to report by ordinance.

The committee on streets and public property reported adversely to the petition of P. Raleigh and others to gravelling Washington street, inasmuch as two-thirds of the property holders had not signed the petition, and the hardship attending such improvements in the winter season. Report adopted.

The same committee reported against the petition of P. Raleigh and others for gas lamps on Washington street, other than the lamp already authorized at the junction of Sixth street, as the gas mains did not extend further out, report was adopted.

City Assessor Going asked for further time for making out the supplementary roll for 1864, which was granted.

The City Collector reported the sum of $3,768 collected during the month of November, and asking for instructions was referred to the committee on ways and means.

Claims against the city were, on motion of Councilman Starr, laid over, as there was no money in the City Treasury.

An ordinance to establish a base line, erect monuments, establish boundaries, and regulating the width of streets, was read the second time.

An ordinance appropriating $100 to pay Judge M. P. Deady for services in preparing the new city Charter, was read the third time, and on motion of Councilman Starr, $100 was stricken out and $200 inserted. On motion, the ordinance was put on its final passage and carried—ayes 6, nays 2.

Councilman Starr moved to amend Rule 28, by striking out all after the word purpose, and requiring the publication of all ordinances passed by the Council; which motion was adopted.

Adjourned.

OREGON OYSTERS.—We believe among all flesh yet discovered, fit for the food of the human race, there is none better, or more delicate, or acceptable to the palate than Oysters; and it has been often a source of regret to persons who have been accustomed to the best Oysters of the Atlantic Coast, that the Pacific Coast could not, or did not, furnish an article in the line of bivalves equal to those of the East. In all other respects we have enjoyed an enviable superiority over the favored regions of the East, in the production of our sea, and the bounties of our land, which has made the matter of our lack in fine Oysters one more surprising. Shell-fish are abundant on the Coast, almost every where from the Straits of Fuca to San Diego, and Shoalwater Bay has enjoyed a fair notoriety for its products, but none of the qualities obtained have been what might naturally be expected by a resident or traveler from the East. Transplanting has been tried, but heretofore with scarcely any perceptible improvement to the shell-fish. San Francisco Oysters are too coppery, others do not grow, others become diseased and consequently poisonous. Very many obstacles have been put in the way of the success of the enterprise, and the failure to obtain a better article has been discussed over many a plate of the genuine old, unlusk of the Baltimore species, which, for its superiority and size, and as an edible dish, has been served up in nearly every first class restaurant on our coast, in lieu of the smaller and more inferior species, the product of the waters of our own coves and inlets. But there is likely to be a change in this respect, and our market has a prospect of being supplied with a far better quality of bivalve. Species lately brought to this city from near the Yaquina river, were shown us yesterday by Mr. Fred. Moller, which are very much superior to anything of the fresh Oyster kind we have yet seen on the Coast. The bed from which they were procured constitutes about ten acres, and the bottom is reported gravelly where they are found, the water pure, and actual experiment has demonstrated that in a period of less than ten months a lot of Oysters planted there have more than doubled in size. They are on ground belonging to the Government as an Indian Reservation, and in order that the title might be secured, a gentleman have leased the bed from the Indian Agent, whose action was ratified by the Department at Washington, and in the course of a year or two our supply of choice bivalves must greatly increase, and it is fair to suppose they will improve in a corresponding ratio.

THE KEANS.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keane, two very distinguished actors, whose fame is part of the history of this generation, are expected here on the next steamer, on their way to Victoria. They are making in this tour their final appearance on the stage, and no doubt our citizens will agree, with the many lovers of the dramatic art everywhere, that their loss will be great if they miss the opportunity offered by the presence of these distinguished artists, to see for the last time we may ever expect to have the opportunity. They are accompanied by an effective troupe, and can we secure their appearance if only for one night it will give us at least that much experience of the highest dramatic talent of the day.

THE OVERLAND MAIL.—Yesterday the schedule time of the Overland Stage Company was changed to twelve days, from Sacramento to Portland, in accordance with the winter arrangement. The mails and passengers will be transmitted by steamer, to and from Oregon City, at this end of the route, as usual heretofore. The service will be kept up as near to the summer time as possible, without reference to the extended number of days given for the benefit of the Company.

AFFRAY AT THE DOCK.—On the arrival of the steamer Wilson G. Hunt from the Cascades last evening, the spectators were treated to an incident not calculated to produce the most harmonious results. It was another of those cases of such common practice in our community of late, "assault with intent to commit murder." One of the principals was arrested, and is under $500 bond, for his appearance before Judge McCoy at 9 o'clock this morning.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The motion for a new trial in the case of Bledsoe was yesterday overruled, in Circuit Court, and time allowed one day, before sentence, to enable the counsel to determine what course they will pursue in regard to a writ of error. The cause of Madison B. Morris vs. the City of Portland, suit for damages, for personal injuries, sustained to plaintiff from falling into the gulch, foot of Jefferson street, submitted to the jury.

THE ASTORIA MAIL PACKET.—The Marine Gazette of Nov. 29th says: Notwithstanding the heavy storm of Friday last, the steamer John H. Couch, Capt. Holman, arrived in good time with the mail in the evening. Excepting a few times when this steamer has stopped by the way to assist others in distress, she has performed excellent service in the mail and passenger business between Astoria and Portland, during the last two years. Our community has never been so well served before, notwithstanding the mail service is paid for in greenbacks at their face.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—The "Lady of Lyons" was performed at Willamette Theatre last night, to a very good audience, Mrs. Hayne [illegible] the character of Pauline, with more than her usual mastery of parts. To-night, "The Last Days of Pompeii," will be produced, together with other interesting parts of performance.

In fact the whole Company do well, [illegible] and receive, as they are entitled to, good support from the lovers of fun.

[illegible] Mr. Jack Sheppard, a late resident of Dalles city, called upon us last evening to correct a wrong impression. He is not the person that lost his [illegible], but on the contrary has a very respectable pair of lips. The Sheppard who did lose a portion of his mouth-piece is no relative of the gentleman from Dalles.

THE ENGLISH OF SAXON OATHS.—Near the top of a gentle acclivity, a boy with a team, whom I had passed a little while before, came up. He was whipping his horses, who were straining up the ascent, and was swearing at them most frightfully in English. I addressed him in that language, inquiring the name of the crag, but he answered Dim Saesneg, and then fell to cursing his horses in English. I allowed him and his team to get to the top of the ascent, then overtaking him I said in Welsh, "What do you mean by saying you have no English? You were talking English just now to your horses."

"Yes," said the lad, "I have English enough for my horses and that is all."

"You seem to have plenty of Welsh," said I; "why don't you speak Welsh to your horses?"

"It's of no use speaking Welsh to them," said the boy; "Welsh isn't strong enough."

"Isn't Myn Diawl tolerably strong?" said I.

"Not strong enough for horses," said the boy; "if I were to say Myn Diawl to my horses, or even Cas Adras, they would laugh at me."

"Do the other carters," said I, "use the same English to their horses which you do to yours?"

"Yes," said the boy; "they all use the same English words; if they didn't the horses wouldn't mind them."—Borrow's Wild Wales.

THE ORIGIN OF DEATH.—A Hottentot gives the following as the origin of death: The Moon, it is said, sent once an Insect to Men, saying, "Go thou to Men, and tell them, as I die, and dying live, so ye shall also die, and dying live." The Insect started with the message, but whilst on his way was overtaken by the Hare, who asked: "On what errand art thou bound?" The Insect answered: "I am sent by the Moon to Men, to tell them that as she dies, and dying lives, they also shall die, and dying live." The Hare said, "As thou art an awkward runner, let me go" (to take the message). With these words he ran off; and when he reached Men, he said: "I am sent by the Moon to tell you, as I die, and dying perish, in the same manner ye shall also die and come wholly to an end." Then the Hare returned to the Moon, and told her what he had said to Men. The Moon reproached him angrily, saying, "Darest thou tell the people a thing which I have not said?" With these words she took up a piece of wood and struck him on the nose. Since that day the Hare's nose is slit. In accordance with which story the old men of Namaquas will not touch hare's flesh to this day.

A NEW BARON MUNCHAUSEN.—The Cologne Gazette contains the following account of the wonderful adventures of a Prussian sailor by flood and field:

On the 2d of April, during the naval combat near Jasmund, in the Isle of Rugen, Wilhelm Gern was grievously wounded and fell into the sea. As he did not re-appear on the surface his messmates supposed he was drowned, but he swam for four hours, and reached a Lubeck vessel on her way to Riga. This good ship was captured by the Danes, who conveyed Gern to Nyborg as a prisoner of war. On the 7th of August he contrived to make his escape with three fellow prisoners, but they were pursued to the shore, where a terrific combat took place. Gern killed two Danes, and although seriously wounded in the head, he jumped into a boat, hoisted the sails, and escaped upon the open sea. On the 12th of August, a war steamer cruising near Rugen, encountered the boat in which lay Gern bathed in his blood and without consciousness. At present he is in the hospital at Dantzic, where he has sent a letter to his friends, who had previously been made acquainted with his melancholy end.

A fellow on a race course was staggering about with more liquor than he could carry.

"Hallo! what is the matter now?" said a chap whom the inebriated individual had just run against.

"Why (hic) why, the fact is, a lot of my friends have been betting liquor on the race to-day, and they have got me to hold the stakes!"

WHAT HE WILL DO.—Says the Girard Union in regard to Dan Rice as State Senator: "Dan is nothing without mules and monkeys. We suppose if he is elected he will take his 'educated brutes' with him to Harrisburg. His blind horse, Excelsior, will probably also accompany him, and will doubtless vote aye on all measures for the support of the Administration. Dan himself would appear in striped tights and painted face, and when his name should be pronounced at roll-call, would bound into the legislative arena with his 'Here we are, master, what will you have next?'"

A YORKSHIRE HERMIT.—In the East Riding of Yorkshire there dwells a man of property, who, from some cause or other, is in a degree emulating the character immortalized by Dickens in one of his Christmas numbers of All the Year Round. He lives in a large old mansion, into which no feet are allowed to encroach. His food is left for him in a shed; and last year's crops are out in the field, yet; the hay rotting in cocks, uncut; and the rye grass standing in one field about six feet in height.—Newcastle (Eng.) Chronicle.

THERE are retorts uncourteous which can be justified by the occasion. Talleyrand, being pestered with questions by a squinting man, concerning his broken leg, replied: "It is quite crooked, as you see." Generally, only the blackguard resorts to personalities.

KITCHEN TUITION.—A "servant school" is the very latest idea in London. In it girls are trained to household work, cooking, washing, ironing and needlework. They are also instructed in reading, writing and arithmetic. Admission is obtained partly by payment by friends, and partly by the nomination of benevolent persons.

AN editor in Illinois, being asked why he did not publish the communication sent to his office, replied, because nobody would ever publish his when he was a youngster, and he intended to be even with the world. He had a newspaper of his own, and correspondents might go to the devil.

HOME! there is music in the word. It falls on the weary heart like a breath from the garden of Eden; and as our hearts feel a thrill of its voiceless melody, the future's sky before us seems lit by an angel smile.

DIOGENES being asked which beast's bite was the most dangerous, replied, "If you mean wild beasts, 'tis the slanderer's; if tame ones, the flatterer's."

DOMESTIC LOVE.—"What do you mean by cat and dog life?" said a husband to his angry wife; "look at Carlo and Kitty asleep together. I wish men lived half as peaceably with their wives." "Stop," said the wife, "tie them together, and then see how they will agree."

You can't persuade a rainbow to make its appearance on a cloudy day. It is resolutely bent on a cloud.

A FRENCH and a Scotch savant have both written pamphlets in favor of making Greek the universal language of the world.

LAWS OF OREGON.

An Act [illegible]

AN ACT [illegible] alleys [illegible]

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly [illegible]

SEC. 1. [illegible]

SEC. 2. [illegible]

SEC. 3. [illegible]

SEC. 4. Whenever any person or body corporate interested in any town in this State [illegible] clerk thirty days previous to the sitting of said county court, and notice of the pendency of such petition shall be given for the same space of time, either in a public newspaper printed in said town, or by written notices thereof set up in three of the most public places in said town, containing a description of the property to be vacated, [illegible]

SEC. 5. If no opposition be made to such petition, or application, the county court may vacate the same, with such restrictions as they may deem reasonable and for the public good.

SEC. 6. If opposition be made thereto, such application shall be continued until the next term of said county court, at which time if the objection shall consent to such vacation, or if the petitioner shall produce to the county court the petition of two-thirds of the property holders in said town of lawful age, the said county court may proceed to hear and determine upon said application, and may, if in their opinion justice requires it, grant the prayer of the petitioner, in whole or in part.

SEC. 7. The part so vacated, if it be a lot, shall vest in the rightful owner, who may have the title thereof according to law; and if the same be a street or alley, the same shall be attached to the lots or ground bordering on such street or alley; and all right and title thereto shall vest in the person or persons owning the property on each side thereof, in equal proportions, according to the length or breadth of such lots or ground, as the same may border on such street or alley.

SEC. 8. But no such vacation of a street or alley shall take place unless the consent of the person or persons owning the property immediately adjoining to said street or alley be obtained thereto in writing, which consent shall be acknowledged before the county clerk.

SEC. 9. In cases where any person interested in any corporated town in this State, the corporate functions of which shall be in active operation, may desire to vacate any street, alley or common, or part thereof, it shall be lawful for such person to petition the common council, or other body, in like manner as persons interested in towns not incorporated, are authorized to petition the county court, and the same proceeding shall be had thereon before such common council, or other corporate body having jurisdiction, as authorized to be had before the county court, and such common council or other corporate body may determine on such application under the same restrictions and limitations as are contained in the foregoing provisions of this act.

SEC. 10. Whenever a public square, or any part thereof shall be vacated, the property thereof shall vest in the county court, for the use of the proper county; and whenever any common or any part thereof, in any incorporated town, or belonging thereto, shall be vacated, the same shall vest in the common council or other corporate body, for the use of such town; and the proper authorities may sell the same and make a title to the purchaser thereof, and appropriate the proceeds thereof for the benefit of said corporation or county, as the case may be.

SEC. 11. In all cases where two or more persons have laid out, or shall hereafter lay out a town, or lands contiguous or adjoining to each other, and such town does not improve, either of the individuals holding all the legal rights, title and interest in all the lots laid off by such party and attached, may have the same vacated as in case of a lot, street or alley, on application of the party laying out such addition, or part of said town, or on the application of such persons as may acquire or derive the legal title to the land and lots in such addition; and in no case shall persons purchasing lots in other additions of said town, be capable of making any valid objections to such vacation, if such vacation does not obstruct any public road or highway laid out and established by law.

SEC. 12. If any person shall lay off an addition to any town which does not improve, and shall be the legal owner of all the lots contained in such additions, such person, or any other person who shall become the legal owner thereof, may have such additions or any part thereof vacated, in like manner as provided in the last preceding section.

Approved, October 21st, 1864.

In the army hospitals, the busy battle-field, in the rich and humble abode of the poor, in the city and the country, in the distant valleys, and far off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands and thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

[illegible], Wash., Sept. 16, 1863.

* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *

C. A. FLANTIE.

[illegible] Warsaw, [illegible], July 28, 1863.

* * * One boy [illegible] who had been sick and out of [illegible] for five years with Scrofula and Erysipelas [illegible] over $100 without benefit, has been cured by [illegible] bottles of your Bitters.

EDWARD WOUNELL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH ST.,
New York, August 2, 1863.

DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully,

MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend,

ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the Kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log-cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the GENERATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The drooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER;
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS; AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION, [illegible] to produce costiveness [illegible] as is the case with other remedies, or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate [illegible], although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. LE DOYEN'S

SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK

—AND—

IODINE ALTERATIVE

FOR THE

CONSTITUTION.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Disease, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS,
DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased use of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and urators of the kidneys, preventing gravel formation and enlargement of the prostrate glands, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.
